Who do Christians believe the Holy Spirit is? (refer to text) How do Christians describe God? (refer to text) 	 What is the Trinity? (Digging deeper) What important words from Genesis 1: 1-5 can you also read in John 1:1-14? How are the opening pages of Matthew and Luke's gospels the same/different to the opening pages of John's gospel? 	justice arising from their study of Bible texts and comment on how far these are helpful or inspiring, justifying their responses. Was Jesus the Messiah? • Why were the Jews waiting for a Messiah? • What characteristics did the Jews expect the Messiah to have? • What clues were there that Jesus was the promised Messiah?

	 Who did Jesus come to earth for? What do Christians do at Christmas? Why? Outcomes Give a clear account of the Christmas story. Describe how at least one character in the Christmas narrative would have felt. Give at least one example of how Christians know that Jesus came to show that all people are precious and special to God. Recognise that Christians believe God came to Earth in human form as Jesus. Describe how Christians celebrate Jesus' birth. 	How do Christians explore the birth narrative through music (including hymns)? Outcomes	What is the story of Jesus' Baptism (Matthew 3: 11-17)? What happens at a Christian Baptism (child and adult)? Sutcomes Know that God is Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Offer suggestions about what texts about baptism and Trinity tell us about God. Give examples of what these mean to some Christians today. Describe how Christians show their beliefs about God the Trinity in worship (in baptism and prayer, for example) and in the way they live.	 What do you think the words in John 1:1-14 mean? How could you show the differences between the gospel accounts? How have song writers used the words of John's gospel in their Christmas carols? In which ways is Jesus both an ordinary person and God? What does the word incarnation mean? What difference does believing in the work of the Holy Spirit make to Christians? How is God best explained? Outcomes Identify John 1 as part of a 'Gospel', noting some differences between John and the other gospels. Offer suggestions for what texts about God might mean. Give examples of what the texts studied mean to some Christians. Describe how Christians show their beliefs about God the Trinity in their worship. Make links between some of the texts and teachings about God in the 		 How do Christians show the message that Jesus is the Messiah, at Christmas? What evidence is there to suggest Jesus was the Messiah? Explain the place of incarnation and Messiah within the 'big story' of the Bible. Identify gospel and prophecy texts, using technical terms. Explain connections between biblical texts, incarnation, and Messiah, using theological terms. Show how Christians put their beliefs about Jesus' incarnation into practice in different ways in celebrating Christmas. Comment on how the idea that Jesus is the Messiah makes sense in the wider story of the Bible. Weigh up how far the idea that Jesus is the Messiah — a Saviour from God — is important in the world and if it is true what difference that might

Where can we find peace and friendliness? Tell stories from the Bible and recognize a link with a concept of Gospel or good news. Give clear, simple accounts of what Bible texts mean to Christians. Recognise that Jesus gives instructions to people about how to behave. Give at least 2 examples of ways in which Christians follow the teachings studied about forgiveness and peace, and bringing good news to the friendless. Think, talk, and ask questions about whether Jesus' good news is only good news for Christians, or if there are things for anyone to learn exploring different ideas. 		 Why did the disciples give everything up to follow Jesus? What happens in the story of the Good Samaritan? How does Jesus challenge people about the way they live? What might Jesus' actions towards the leper mean for a Christian? What kind of world do you think Jesus wants and how does this differ to the world at present? How does a Christian leader seek to make the world that Jesus wants? Can you describe a Christian charity and how it puts Jesus' teachings into practice? Outcomes Identify this as part of a 'Gospel' which tells the story of the life and teaching of Jesus. Make clear links between the calling of the first disciples and how Christians today try to follow Jesus and be 'fishers of people'. Offer some ideas about the meaning of the Good Samaritan story for Christians and make simple links between the Good story and the importance of charity in Christian life. Offer suggestions about what Jesus' actions towards the leper might mean for a Christian. 	 What would a model Christian look like if they built their life on 'rock' as illustrated in the parable? What would a 'model' church look like where WWJD is at the heart of all that they do? Outcomes Identify features of Gospel texts (eg. teachings, parable, narrative) Taking account of the context, suggest meanings of Gospel texts studied and compare their ideas with ways in which Christian interpret biblical texts, showing awareness of different interpretations. Make clear connections between Gospel texts, Jesus' good news and how Christians live in the Christian community and in their individual lives.
