Odd Socks Day 2025

Dear Parents and Carers,

On Monday 10th November, we will be taking part in Odd Socks Day. This celebration will be part of national 'Anti-Bullying Week' and is a way to celebrate that we are all unique.

Children are invited to come to school wearing odd socks as part of their school uniform for the day.

WHY IS ODD SOCKS DAY IMPORTANT?

The day sends an important message to pupils that they should be allowed to be themselves free from bullying and helps us celebrate Anti-Bullying Week in a fun and positive way.

During the rest of Anti-Bullying week, children will be taking part in a range of activities in their PSHE lessons inspired by the theme for this year 'Power for Good,' which encourages children to respect others and promote the British Values of Mutual Respect and Tolerance of different faiths and beliefs. The School Council will also take a supporting role in leading the whole school in an Anti-Bullying worship.

Kind Regards,

Mrs McLean, Miss Evanson and the School Council
